Recommends that permission sought for to the use of Sivetachatri, makara-Thorana and Hagaldevatige Biradus by Sodekere Rambhapuri matha, may be given.

6 The facts of the case are given at full length in Muz. D. no. 400-1910 already put up.

7 The Swami of the Sodekere Rambhapuri matt approached Govt in February 1911 praying for a Rahadari title Sivetachatri, Makarathorana and Hagaldevatige, and Palaki and other paraphernalia - the matter was fully enquired into, and under the gracious orders of H H the maharaja, the use of Palaki and other insignia by this mall was permitted in S.O. no 338 Dy 23-8-12; As regards Suetachatri, makara thoranam and Hayaldiratige Biradus, there was a difference of opinion between the then 1st and 2d councillors, and the late Dewan in para 8 of his Subsn note to H H the maharaja, recorded the opinion that these insignia "should be disallowed in the absence of satisfactory proof of their grant or enjoyment" no mention of these 3 insignia was made in the order of 23-8-1912 referred to.

8 The mall put in a revision petition urging its claim to the use of these 3 Biradus also and the Dy. Commr was requested to send up a report with special reference to the Sanads relied on by the mall. The Dy. Commr has submitted his report with records for the orders of Govt.

grounds are adduced for revising the order of Govt except perhaps as regards the Hasaldinatige-

10 The Dy. Commr reports that a perusal of the original Rivipe produced by the mutt before him, shows that the mutt is in existence from a very long time, that the Rivipe of 1820 refers to the use of chatri and chamara during the tours of the Swami, while that issued on 29.9.1869 to a mate disciple refers to the use of Hasaldinatige on occasions of marriage by the people of this sect, and that it is stated that the mutt is held in great Veneration by a great number of disciples both in the Mysore State and Bombay Presidency. The Dy. Commr refers to the and the Kyphiyat of 24.4.1911 Mahazar of 1.5.1911, wherein the Signatories State that they have seen the Swami travelling with all the insignia claimed Viz. Sevetachatre, Hasaldinatige, Makaratoranas etc. by him. That Officer invites reference to the observation contained in para 13 the Govt insignia to Hindu and Jaina mutts, of G.O. of 28-5-1870 that no restriction seems to be quite necessary to the 3 Special honors and Panchakalasa. He is of opinion that permission may be given to the use of Sada-Sevetachatri, Makara-

Thoranas.

12 A Minute of 1820 and another of 1867 are the only two documentary evidence produced by the party in support of their claim for the additional Biruduss or Insignias of 1 Sweta Chatri 2 Makarathorana and 3 Hagaldevatige. No mention of any of these are made in the former and the latter mentions only Hagaldevatige, the use of which appearing to be restricted only to the town of Mysore. In these circumstances it is a point for consideration whether the ~~affidavit~~ Statement of 24/4/17 & others given by some of the disciples of the Matt before the Amildar can be taken as satisfactory proof of the ~~ergo~~ grant or enjoyment of the biruduss in question

13 The evidence now put forward in support of the claim is far from satisfactory and is not much better than what it was at the time of the original enquiry

14 The Mahazar and the statements signed by a few persons are far from convincing.

15 The Sannad of 1820 mentions only Chetti and Chamera and for the absence of the higher honours in it, it is inferable that the Matte has no right to them.

16 The Sannad of 1867 issued to Banara Kappanna is evidently personal to him and granting that he is a disciple of the Matte, the use of the Hagaldeevatige may be said to have been permitted to the people of his Seet at marriages but this would not give a right to the Swami to parade it at all places.

17 Hagaldeevatige and Makara thorana are emblems of royalty but Sada Sweta chetri is not. As the Sannad of 1820 mentions a Chetri but not its colour, it may perhaps be correct to allow the use of the Swetachatri but the Matt has clearly no claim to the other honours.

18 In this connection the of Mr K. P. Patil annexed dately given under date 31st July 1911 in F in no 1077 of 1910 is weighty and it might do to treat this matter on a higher footing than the Sirigere Matt

Sir,

With reference to your docket No. 110 Muz. 496-14-2 dated the 14th July 1915, forwarding a ~~re-~~petition registered as No. 2093 dated 31st June 1915, from Veeranna, Sarpatnegar of Kodeykere Bhajantatti in the Chickanayakanhalli Taluk, urging the Mattu's claim to the use of Sheath Cloth, Pingaldevatige and Kalasa Mallige and praying for a report with special reference to the remarks recorded on by the Mattu, together with the records. I have the honour to state as follows:-

The use of certain Insignia by the Mattu mentioned above, was sanctioned by the Government in their Proceedings No. 388-Muz. M. 401-10-5 dated the 30th August 1911, and no mention was made about the use of the other three Privileges now asked for, though they were included in the application before in 1911. The Sarpatnegar Kodeykere of the Mattu produced certain Sanads in original granted to the Mattu and by them it is seen that the Mattu is in existence from a very long time. One Sanad granted in the year 1820 refers to the use of Chatri on certain days during the tour of the Swami. The other dated 20-6-1807, addressed to Banavara Thopanna, one of the disciples of the Mattu refers to the use of Pingaldevatige on occasions of marriage by the people of this sect and the use of Chatri, Cowl, Chowri, Palanquin, Nisani and Bhoge in the case of the Mattu himself and his descendants. It is stated that the Mattu is held in great veneration by the disciples who are resident in large numbers not only in the Taluk but also in the Bangalore District.
